
Cattle Market.

Cattle
Market

Collection of Maggie Land Blanck, copy of old photo bought on eBay 2006

Originally held on the streets of Wakefield it was moved to George Street in 1765. In the 1800s it was the biggest cattle market in Northern England. In 1868 the market for cattle was held on Wednesdays and there were livestock fairs July 4 and November 11 for cattle horses and sheep.

River Calder and Chantry Bridge